GRIEFSHARE

Friday Nights from 6-8pm

GriefShare is a group where people find support, direction, and help after a loved one's death. It is a place where you can be encouraged by people who have been where you are, and you can learn how to manage grief's emotions and stresses.

Our GriefShare meets on Fridays, 6:00 to 8:00 pm., now through February 23, 2024. During this two hour period we will watch a video on specific aspects of grief, and have a time of discussion. There is a participant guide book that goes along with the sessions for personal reflection and short exercises to help manage daily stresses, sort through emotions, and find comfort.

"Surviving the Holidays" is a special session on Saturday, November 18th, from 10:00 am to noon. Individuals are invited to attend even if not registered for the regular GriefShare meetings. At this special session we will highlight coping strategies and emotional support during the Thanksgiving and Christmas season.

PRAYER TEAM

We Have Forgotten God

The words below were penned by President Abraham Lincoln 160 years ago, during the Civil War. They fit our day as well.

And whereas it is the duty of nations as well as of men, to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions, in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon; and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord.

And, insomuch as we know that, by His divine law, nations like individuals are subjected to punishments and chastisements in this world, may we not justly fear that the awful calamity of civil war, which now desolates the land, may be but a punishment, inflicted upon us, for our presumptuous sins, to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole People? We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of Heaven. We have been preserved, these many years, in peace and prosperity. We have grown in numbers, wealth and power, as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own. Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us!

It behooves us then, to humble ourselves before the offended Power, to confess our national sins, and to pray for clemency and forgiveness.

WOMEN IN THE WORD

Memorizing Scripture

This past summer we started memorizing Scripture together through weekly posts on Facebook. As we closed out the summer, I decided to continue posting weekly verses to encourage you to continue memorizing His Word so that you can pray His words back to Him. Currently, we are focusing on verses that align to the ACTS acronym for prayer: Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication. November marks the last letter of the acronym "S-Supplication". In December, we will put the verses together in weekly prayers. If you haven't been tracking with us, it's not too late. I hope you will join us! New verses are posted on Mondays.

SENSORY ZONE

We are thrilled to announce our new and upcoming Special Needs ministry in KidZone. We believe that all individuals are children of God and should have a place in the church to grow in their faith regardless of their own unique abilities. Our hope is to make KidZone a place where children and their families are welcomed and included as full participants in the life of the church and to help our children with special needs know, love, and share the love of Jesus. We are currently engaging and supporting individuals and families through our new Sensory Zone where children can take a break from regular classes to self regulate. We will also offer individual accommodations for children that need to use this room for the entirety of services.

Special thanks to Laura Fitzgerald who has been busy painting a mural in our Sensory Room!

SERVING

The Believer's Privilege, Honor and Joy

Covenant members are invited to find a place to serve in your church. Serving is a great way to get connected and plug into your faith family. There are many opportunities for you to serve the Lord and others here at FCC. Don't miss a blessing, step up and start serving in your church today. Not a covenant member? Want to serve? Watch for information on the next covenant member class in January.

Eph. 2:10 For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

We are created to do good works! God made us this way and prepares for us opportunities to serve.

Phil. 2:3-8 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being the very nature of God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking on the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death even death on a cross!

We serve one another because Christ modeled humble service even to the point of death as he gave up His life for us.

Matthew 16:24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross follow me.

We honor Jesus with obedience when we put aside self to serve Christ, His church, and others.

Col.3:23-23 Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ.

It is our privilege to enjoy heavenly reward for our acts of service to the Lord. It is wise to invest your time in eternity. Store up your treasure in heaven.

1 Peter 4:10 As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace.

You have been gifted to serve and share that gift with others.

Ps. 100:1-2 Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth! Serve the Lord with gladness!

Serving is a form of worship. We worship God because He is worthy of our worship. The result of worship is a deep and abiding joy.

"FIVE LIES OF OUR ANTI-CHRISTIAN AGE"

By Rosaria Butterfield

If I could strongly encourage every Christian to read just one book this year, aside from the Bible itself, it would be without-a-doubt Rosaria Butterfield's "Five Lies of Our Anti-Christian Age". This book was written "for such a time as this." Every person has or is being affected by this issue and will benefit from clarity on how to think biblically through this pervasive topic. More than even the specific topics covered in this book, she helps us to think biblically through all the lies contrary to God's order that are creeping into the church through society.

Using her own testimony - a miraculous and beautiful work of God - along with the authority of Scripture, Rosaria unapologetically, yet graciously, confronts some of the biggest deceptions in our culture. Deceptions that have unfortunately desensitized many that claim to be a part of God's Church. One quote concerning this especially hit hard, "somewhere along the lines, well-meaning Christians started seeing conformity to culture as missional."

Right from the introduction of the book, Rosaria plainly states the lies:

- Homosexuality is normal.
- Being a spiritual person is kinder than being a biblical Christian.
- Feminism is good for the world and the Church.
- Transgenderism is normal
- Modesty is an outdated burden that serves male dominance and holds women back.

The book continues with a confession from the self-proclaimed former lesbian feminist, "gay-rights activist and tenured radical professor". She humbly admits "this is the world that I helped create...the world is in chaos, and the Church is divided because we have failed to obey God and value His plan for how men and women should live.

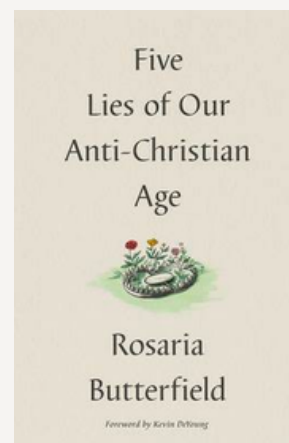

We foolishly believed that we could permanently extricate the gospel from the creation ordinance - that we could have the New Testament without the Old. We foolishly believed that personal piety and love for Jesus require no doctrinal integrity and no foundation in the Bible as God's inerrant, sufficient, and inspired Word."

Some may be initially jolted by Rosaria's bluntness. Keep reading. She is courageous. She is absolutely unashamed of God and His Word. I believe her passionate desire for God's glory and her longing for others to know freedom in Christ vividly come through. She states, "God used the offense of God's Word for the good of my soul."

Throughout all the biblical and historical research in the book, Rosaria boldly holds out the hope of Christ to the misled and to the ones that desperately love and pray for the misled. Her explanations of repentance and God's abundant mercy found only inside the gospel are clear. An entire section is dedicated as a help to the parents of prodigals; and, she ends her book with a list of common questions and "Principles on Loving People Lost to These Lies".

This book completely surprised me. I walked into it expecting to learn from an articulate, well-researched teacher - which I did - but I left not only with more knowledge, but with a greater fear of the Lord. Truly. I finished the book and immediately started it over. Rosaria's heart is for all of God and nothing less. I highly recommend this book.

The Treasure Principle

Matthew 6:19-21

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."
